- 1. 2019 Bianco Siciliane 'Calaiancu,' Mortellito
$5 taste, $28 btl. >> $23.80 on 6 mix
90% Grillo, 10% Catarratto. Organic. From the southeastern corner of Sicily, grown in chalky soil and macerated on the skins for 12 hours, this wine has a wonderful texture. On the nose, complex citrus and saline notes. Light to medium bodied with baked lemon, lime zest and apricot, the finish is mineral and saline. This is hard to compare to anything else and a real delight.
- 2. 2019 Walter Scott Chardonnay 'La Combe Verte,' Willamette Valley new vintage!*
$5 taste, $32 btl. >> $27.20 on 6 mix
100% Chardonnay. "The result is an illuminating style of chardonnay, showcasing density and precision. The palate spotlights evolving layers of textures which follow the classic aromatic notes of lemon zest, honeycrisp apple and white flowers, with the finish offering a subtle mineral and saline character." –Winery Tasting Notes
- 3. 2017 Saint Romain Rouge, Alain Gras
$7 taste, $46 btl. >> $39.10 on 6 mix
100% Pinot Noir. "Whiffs of reduction and crushed green leaf make for a pungent nose so I would suggest a quick decantation first. The sleek, intense and delicious lighter weight (though not dilute) flavors exude evident minerality on the focused and delineated finish that displays a touch of youthful austerity. (88/100)" –Alan Meadows, Burghound
- 4. 2018 Matthaïsson Cabernet Sauvignon 'Village No. 2,' Napa Valley
$6.5 taste, $42 btl. >> $35.70 on 6 mix
100% Cabernet Sauvignon. Bright ruby. This is a fresh, lifted Cabernet with plum, cassis & some cherry fruits. Medium-bodied and made to drink young. A touch of earth and fine, integrated tannins make this a great week-night dinner wine. Try with grilled pork chops or pasta with grilled vegetables.
- 5. 2018 Ribera del Duero 'Roble,' Viña Sastre
$5 taste, $22 btl. >> $18.70 on 6 mix
100% Tempranillo. Intense dark cherry color. Aromas of wild berries & black fruit. Rich with complex dark fruit, roasty notes and some mineral nuance. Really great value 'big' red. This would be perfect with anything smoked.
